*You are the light of the world!
You are the light of the world!
But, if that light is under a bushel,
It's lost something kind of crucial,
You've got to stay bright to be the light of the world...*

[from Godspell, Light of The World - music & lyrics by

Stephen Schwartz]

You know something deep within you is calling, don't you? It's calling you to step up, be seen, and be heard. Somehow, you know that you need to show up, more than ever before - in your personal life and in the world. When the world around you goes dark, the more brightly you need to shine. For, you ARE the light of the world. Don't wait for someone else. Shine now. You've got to stay bright to be the light of the world.

How do you stay bright when so many around you seem to go dark with anger and hate, with grief and guilt? Or, when you find yourself stricken with pain and are suffering?

*You are the light of the world!
You are the light of the world!
But the tallest candlestick,
Ain't much good without a wick,
You've got to live right to be the light of the world!*

[from Godspell, Light of The World - music & lyrics by

Stephen Schwartz]

Yes, you've got to live right to be the light of the world. But, what does it really mean to live right? What's obviously right for one person may prove to be painfully wrong for another. Often the rigid adherence to the letter of the law invalidates the spirit of the law. Many of us may seek to make the right choice, to do the right thing, and to find the right job, the right partner, or the right path. At the same time, we may stubbornly defend our rightness. We may even decide that we'd rather be righteously angry than be happy when wronged and risk being judged stupid - or crazy. We may have learned by now that might never makes right, but do we know how to live right and brightly shine as the light of the world?

The term "right" derives from an Indo-European root that signifies movement in a straight line. Do we live "right" by advancing along the straight line of our destined, spiritual path? Is that the path Jesus was referring to when he said, "strait is the gate and narrow is the way that leads to life and they are few who find it"? Did the Buddha describe that same path we are to follow as, "The Middle Way"? If so, how can you gain certainty that you are on your soul's path and living the way you are meant to live, as the light of the world, especially now with the world in a tailspin, seemingly ruled by greed, deceit, and corruption?

Yes, it's time to have certainty in yourself. You are light. You are spirit. You are limitless. The time for thinking yourself into a pretzel and being confused is past. Now is the time for you to be clairvoyant, to see truth more clearly. A new epoch is beginning. The human race is making the quantum leap needed to transcend its body-based intellectual form and reincarnate as a spirit-centered intuitive consciousness. It's time to erase doubt with kindness; replace effort, resistance, and competition with grace. It's time to know yourself more fully as the light of the world and that you are in this world, but not of it. It's time to live as the bright, creative, and powerful being that you are, both in this world and beyond it. The time has come: live by intuition, know with certainty what your next step is, and live the miracle each day.

Are you ready to take your next step on this great adventure? If so, we welcome you to join us for two third eye-opening, mind clearing, energy-boosting, soul-fulfilling all-day seminars that will help you in accelerating and deepening your awakening process. In Saturday's seminar, Clairvoyance, Intuition & Your Next Step: See Your Light, Know Your Light, Live Your Light, you'll first learn the true spiritual purpose for developing your clairvoyance and intuition. Then, you'll explore how you can use these abilities to have certainty in each step you take in your life and to be able to see and know your light more clearly. You'll learn how you can more fully express your inner truth, loving wisdom, and creative power in this world now. Don't let fear, lack of trust, or uncertainty about your light keep you from sharing yourself and the gift that you are in the world. You'll also learn many simple, but powerful psychic tools that you can use everyday to help you see where you are going and know what your next step is no matter where you are along your path. You'll get to experience more of the creative being that you already are and learn to express your creativity more fully.

Then, in our Sunday seminar, When God Has Other Plans: Psychic Tools for Transforming Human Obstacles into Divine Opportunities, you'll learn what makes it seem like your life at times takes a sudden detour just when you thought you were cruising along or when you felt that you've had things figured out. I'll teach you many psychic tools and practices to help you shift your view on what may seem like limitations, obstacles, and other challenges that befall you in your more human, worldly life, so that you can transform them into the Divine opportunities and gifts that they really are for you as an eternal soul. In today's tumultuous and turbulent world, how are you, a sensitive, awakening soul, to navigate your way on your spiritual path? You can't afford to gain the whole world and lose your own soul. Yet, you, like everyone else, must find your way to feed yourself and your family, have a roof over your head, and pay your bills and taxes, all the while discovering what your true purpose is for being here as a soul and learning to fulfill that purpose. In this profound seminar, you'll learn how to be in this world, but know with certainty that you are not of this world. It's time for you to go beyond the seeming limitations and lack of being born human and participate more fully in the abundance of Divine Grace.

We look forward to seeing you in Colorado!
