It may look like the world’s gone bonkers. It looks like that to so many people today because humanity is waking up. The world’s been bonkers for a long time. Now, more and more people are seeing it. This is what often happens first whether an individual is waking up or the whole of humanity is waking up. We begin to see more clearly the truth. Yet, before we can see the absolute truth, we can see only the relative truth. We begin to see the lies for what they are - mere lies. And, the great news is: lies don’t count, we only need to toss them out as soon as we discover that they are lies. It’s the truth that matters. So, don’t get hung up on lies. Seek the truth. Always.

Seeing the truth, that’s what being clairvoyant is about. You begin to develop your clairvoyance by learning to discern the lies from truth. But, initially, as you start seeing more clearly the lies that many people seem to tout as truth, you might get stuck and discouraged. Don’t worry. That’s pretty normal. Just keep seeking the truth.

One of my favorite instructions that Jesus gave to his disciples, quoted in The Gospel of Thomas, was this: “Those who seek should keep seeking until they find. When they find, they will be disturbed. When they are disturbed, they will be amazed and they will reign over all.” In those three sentences, the master outlines the process of spiritual growth and the path of the clairvoyant. So, that’s where we’ll start in our Saturday seminar, Being Clairvoyant: See the Truth, Get Unstuck and Live the Miracle. In this extraordinary all-day seminar, you’ll learn psychic tools and practices to discern the lies from the truth more clearly. You’ll also learn to apply the process in your everyday life to free yourself from being stuck on problems and live a more miraculous life - a life of purpose in which nothing is impossible in fulfilling that purpose. Once you learn to see more of the truth and live clairvoyantly, it'll be hard to imagine how you could have lived any other way.

In Sunday's seminar, we'll continue with your clairvoyant development and you'll learn that what you see in your life and in the world around you is what you made. You'll also learn how that happens, whether you are conscious of it or not. That's the good news since once you recognize that what you see is what you made, you can easily change it by seeing differently. You are the author of your life and just as a great writer knows that the first draft of a book is just that, the first draft and not the finished manuscript, you will discover that you write your life story by re-visioning it over and over until you are happy with it. So, in this seminar, you'll learn to apply your clairvoyance and innate creativity to transform your life into one that fulfills you at the deepest level as an immortal soul. You'll see and live your life in a beautiful new way.
