I Can See Clearly Now:
Clairvoyant Development Series

*

Starting August 31, 2017

Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

If you could clearly see the path you are to follow, how would you live your life? Would your relationships be more fulfilling, if you could see and know much more about people, just by looking at them? What would you change in the way you work and do things, if you saw yourself more clearly and knew what you were here to do and learn? How different would your life be, if you saw everything in it more clearly and knew what you needed to do to effortlessly improve it?

Is there some kind of magic potion that you can take to do all of that? Of course, not. Yet, if you're willing to learn to see with your inner vision, with the eye of spirit, and develop your innate ability to see life and everything in it clearly, including yourself, you will be able to do all of that and much, much more. When you learn to use more of your clairvoyant ability, even the sky won't be your limit.

Clairvoyance, however, is a big - and hot - topic. On the one hand, it's incredibly simple - everyone has the ability already and is using it every minute of every day, even while they sleep; but, most people just have no clue how they're using it. On the other hand, it is so powerful that, if fully mastered, you could literally move a mountain with it. Of course, I haven't found a reason to want to move Mount Shasta or Everest or even a small hill, but, I have used my clairvoyance to move countless mountains of unwanted energies in healing myself and others over the years. That's not hard at all. I use it all of the time to change the quality of energy where I live, work, and do everything I do in life. Work becomes more productive, communication more profound and enjoyable, relationships more fulfilling, communities more supportive and loving, and life just becomes so much more fun - when I use my clairvoyance, correctly.

Because of the immense good that is possible with the development and use of your clairvoyance, the subject of clairvoyance has most often been buried under tons of mystery, misinformation, misdirection, and outright invalidation by those who sought to exert their control and dominate society in pursuit of their own personal gain - for millennia. For those who seek the truth, clairvoyant development is not only a necessity, but inevitable. For those who seek to impose their personal wills on others, clairvoyance is a threat and something to be kept under wraps. But, today, humanity has evolved in its collective consciousness to a place where it can no longer deny its clairvoyance. It can no longer be kept hidden and relegated, at best, to the very few “gifted” ones amongst us. Everyone is gifted with this soul or psychic ability. It’s time for everyone to learn how to correctly use it, develop it, and experience life in a much richer and fuller way that it is meant to be lived. Although we all tend to experience them in life, pain and suffering are not the real purpose for our lives. Life is meant to be a celebration of creation, joyous, loving, and eternally peaceful. Learn to use your clairvoyance correctly and start experiencing more of the miracle of life!

To help guide many more of you toward that attainment, we’ve decided to offer a brand new series of teleclasses through which we will teach you to develop your own innate clairvoyance. Through these teleclasses, you’ll learn to work with your psychic energies, better manage the energies you encounter in your daily life, look at and see energy as it is, interpret what various energies you encounter are telling you, transform energy from one quality to another, heal through your ability to see more of the truth in yourself and others, know yourself and others much more, communicate as spirit with others as the spirit they are, see your path you need to follow more clearly, know your purpose more, and to do much, much more. Join us for these extraordinary teleclasses, learn to own and use your clairvoyance, and live more of the miracle that is your soul life!

This series is ideal for both beginners and intermediate students interested in developing their clairvoyance as well as for advanced students who are interested in reviewing and learning to teach clairvoyant development to others for their spiritual growth.

TC1 - Imagine That! Your Imagination & Your Clairvoyance

August 31, Thursday

6 PM - 8 PM

Your ability to imagine is all-important in the development and mastery of your clairvoyance. Without our imagination, none of us would see anything. Yet, most people have their imagination severely restricted by the time they are seven years old. By adulthood, the use of one's powerful imagination often becomes limited to a narrow band of so-called practicality. We're trained to be serious and color between the lines.

In this teleclass, we'll set up the very foundation of your clairvoyant development. You'll explore the true nature of your imagination and start to reclaim the power inherent in its correct use that you've given up earlier in your life. You'll learn how you use your imagination in everything you do and discover its function in the development of your clairvoyance. The more freedom you gain in using your imagination, the more you'll be able to access your innate clairvoyant abilities to see life and everything in it more clearly. You'll learn simple, but powerful psychic tools to practice exercising the more profound aspects of your imagination, creativity, and clairvoyance.

TC2 - Everything You See Is Energy

September 7, Thursday

6 PM - 8 PM

Einstein mathematically demonstrated that energy is matter and matter is energy with his legendary equation, $E = mc^2$, or energy equals mass times the speed of light squared. In other words, everything from the giant galaxies down to sub-atomic particles is energy. Our bodies are energy, the air we breathe is energy, our thoughts and emotions are energy. That means, everything we see is energy, including what we see within our own mind - which is everything, since all we see, we see in our mind.

In this class, you'll learn to look at everything as energy and to start to see everything you look at as energy or vibration. You'll discover that everything, including your thoughts and feelings and the energy of a room or around your body, is vibrating energy with certain qualities so you can distinguish one thing from another. You'll learn various psychic tools to help you see both the outer world and your inner world as energy and how to go from looking at one kind of energy to another. You'll also learn that you are always looking at some kind of energy, even while you sleep, and that you can start to discern what kind of energy you are looking at.

TC3 - Seeing Colors, Reading Energy

October 1, Sunday

10 AM - 12 PM

Clairvoyants often speak of seeing the colors in a person's aura - the electromagnetic energy field around everyone's bodies. Different vibrations can be seen as different colors, much like light breaking up into different frequencies through a prism is seen by the physical eyes as a rainbow of colors. When I first started seeing auras when I was a child, I used to call them "colored clouds" around people.

In this class, you'll learn to see different energies as different colors. You'll then start to tap into your intuitive knowingness to "know" the meaning of the different colors. This is a life-long process of learning how consciousness can be expressed as colors and the more you practice looking clairvoyantly, the more you'll begin to know what the colors are "saying". For many of you, this will be the start of learning the beautiful language of colors - along with how you, as spirit, communicate through your body.

TC4 - Stop, Ask & Know

October 13, Friday

6 PM - 8 PM

Until people begin to learn to use their clairvoyance and intuition, they almost always live trying to figure things out intellectually. Once you start to trust in your own inner knowing and seeing, however, you'll be able to go beyond intellectually trying to figure everything out and just look, see, and know what is true and correct for you, even if you can't explain it to anyone. Whether you are making a simple decision or a major life decision, once you start to use your clairvoyance and intuition, you'll find that it requires no effort and your life will unfold in a wonder-filled way you might not have expected. This is the beginning of living the miracle of your soul life.

In this class, you'll learn to let go of trying to figure things out intellectually and just stop, ask, and know your own answers. You'll learn the importance of each of those three steps. Until you can in a sense stop and quiet your mind, you won't be able to access your inner seeing or knowing. Once you stop your mind, so to speak, you can then ask what it is that you would like, whether it is an answer to a question, a solution to a problem, or something you would like to have in your life. You'll learn that what you ask and how you ask for it are essential to you receiving the answer. Once you know what that is, you also have to practice trusting yourself enough to follow through with what you know.

TC5 - Different Chakras For Different Information

November 2, Thursday

6 PM - 8 PM

Most of you are aware that 'chakra' is a Sanskrit term meaning 'wheel' and it is what we most often call the major spinning disc of energy that are found along the vertical axis in front of the spinal column. Chakras are the energy-awareness-information centers in our subtle energy body. There are seven major chakras in the human body and each of them contain different energies and information and have different functions. Each of the major chakras is like a whole system in the energy body much like the circulatory, nervous, respiratory, digestive, or endocrine systems are different systems in the physical body, each with its own functions. Whether you have a thorough understanding of the anatomy and physiology of each of the bodily systems or not, you will still breathe and eat and sleep and live your life. Yet, if you even have a basic understanding of how each of the systems work, you will most likely be able to enjoy a healthier and more productive life. If you have a thorough knowledge of the workings of these bodily systems, you may be able to provide much needed guidance, instruction, and healing to many others as well as to yourself to enjoy a more fulfilling life. In a similar fashion, having at least a working understanding of your chakra systems will allow you to enjoy an infinitely more productive, healthful, successful, and fulfilling life.

The main focus for this class will be the exploration of your chakras, learning the tools to help you become more aware of each of the chakras, and practicing using the information and energies of the chakras more consciously every day.

TC6 - Getting to Know You

November 16, Thursday

6 PM - 8 PM

A major part of the purpose for developing your clairvoyance is for you to get to see and know yourself more fully. In fact, how would we truly get to know God, if we didn't first know ourselves? The funny thing that few people tend to ask themselves is, "How could we NOT know ourselves, if we are who we are?" Well, if we are truly being ourselves, of course, there is no way that we won't know ourselves! It would be a given. Yet, most of us spend a great deal of our lives in search of ourselves. That is because most of us have spent much of our lives trying to be someone, something, and somehow different than who we inherently are. In a way, many of us are like actors who got into the character that we were to play in a show so deeply and for so long that we forgot who we were. To know yourself is to undo all that you've become in order to rediscover who you are.

In this class, you'll learn to "read" yourself clairvoyantly in order to discover more and more about yourself that may be different from what you've long assumed of yourself. There's an aspect of clairvoyant reading that is a bit like detective work. Yet, rather than finding out 'who dun-nit', you'll be looking for clues about who you are and who you aren't, energetically.

TC7 - Look, See, Say!

December 10, Sunday

10 AM - 12 PM

To find your space to be who you truly are in spirit, you have to express yourself. As you are a creative being, everything you say is part of your creative expression. The more you can say and share what you see, the more you will begin to see and the more clearly you will see. That's why many visionaries and creative inventors often have their 'eureka!' break-through moment as they are sharing their visions and ideas with others. The same process occurs for clairvoyants. The more you can share what you are seeing, even if you think that you are not seeing much, the more you will begin to see. When you say what you are seeing, you are validating what you are seeing. With validation, everything grows.

In this class, you'll practice the three steps that lead to developing your clairvoyant reading ability. Since you're always looking at something, the first step is to re-direct your inner vision from what you're looking at to what you'd like to find out more about and look at that. Once you're looking at what you'd like to see more clearly, then, you need to validate what you are seeing. Part of that validation of what you are seeing comes from saying what you are seeing. In those situations in which you find yourself not able to speak out loud, even writing down what you see can help. One way or another, it requires you to share outwardly what you are experiencing inwardly. When you practice this repeatedly, the process becomes second nature and you'll be able to look at anyone or anything and say what it is that you see. Then, the miracles can unfold!
