Fulfill Your Dreams & Visions:
Energy Work to Heal Your Creative Manifestation Ability

Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

Let's launch a brand New Year! Celebrate life. If the going gets tough, the tough - and the sensitive alike - need to get going and manifest what's true, beautiful and good. Don't try to fit in with the status quo. We're here to go home, our real home. We need to make the best use of the short time we have here on earth to do that. Don't jump off of the cliff or throw in your towel because others are doing so. Fulfill your dreams and visions about what life is for you. But, merely wishing for it isn't going to cut it. You have to do it.

In my vision, we all wake up from the nightmare of pain and suffering, once and for all time. I know that the purpose of life has nothing to do with pain or suffering of any kind. Yet, everyone experiences pain and suffers at least some of the time. I know it doesn't have to be that way. So, I teach to fulfill my dream. I teach all of the time, even while I sleep. And unlike many people, I work to make my job obsolete. Why? When my job becomes obsolete, I get to go home.

To help you, whether you're tough or not, get your new year going on a great note, we've designed a brand new set of classes in our on-going teleseminar series, Be A Lamp Unto Yourself: Insight, Wisdom and Spiritual Healing. Since manifesting your dreams and visions is a big job, this 7-part series teaches you to manifest different components that you may need to fulfill your whole dream and manifest your complete vision.
