*Dear SHAPE Community & Graduates of Clairvoyant Programs,
AHA! & Our Psychic Tools & Life Mastery Practices Course,*

Have you been feeling like someone lit a fire under you and you have to get going somewhere, somehow? Or have you been waiting for the “other shoe” to drop any time now? Or perhaps, for some of you, it may have been like something big is happening, but you don’t quite know what. It could seem a bit too much to handle or that you’re getting a little crispy around the edges. But not to worry. They haven’t crowned you the “Roast of the Town”—at least, not this time around!

Yet, there IS a fire ablaze—both within you and in the world.

*... She's living in a world and it's on fire
Filled with catastrophe, but she knows she can fly away...*

*... She got both feet on the ground
And she's burning it down...
... She got her head in the clouds
And she's not backing down*

*This girl is on fire
This girl is on fire*

*She's walking on fire
This girl is on fire*

*Looks like a girl, but she's a flame
So bright she can burn your eyes....*

She's just a girl, but she's on fire.

Lines excerpted from Alicia Keys' 2012 hit song, "Girl On Fire". Inspired by her son's birth, Alicia wrote this song.

This is a great song musically, lyrically, and production-wise, but above all that, the artists tapped into a higher creative realm that they may not have been conscious of and were used as messengers for the masses. It's a song that speaks on several important levels. But what the songwriters most likely were not aware of writing at the time is that the lyrics also express the kundalini fire blazing in Alicia as she gave birth to her son. She literally burned through quite a bit of karma and rose up out of those ashes. Looks like a girl, but she's a flame, So bright she can burn your eyes...

Whether you are a girl or a guy, have a female body or a male one, the kundalini is the feminine aspect of the Eternal Flame of God's Love. So you could say, "This girl is on fire." And it doesn't matter if much of the world looks upon you as, "She's just a girl", it is that fire of the Holy Spirit that defines who you are, not your gender, your race, or anything else about your body. You are spirit with your "head in the clouds, And... [you're]... not backing down".

Over two millennia ago, John The Baptist talked about the one who will come after him: "I baptize you with water for repentance. But after me comes one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

Perhaps you've been on fire as well. Have you noticed what's been happening with your creative power? It's an important time to give yourself even more space to express your creativity in this world. That means various forms of communicating, sharing, and taking action. That fire has to have space to burn—otherwise, you get a bit hot under your collar or even a little crispy!

While each of us is learning to manage the fire within, fires are raging around the world. Wildfires, volcanic eruptions, bombings, and mass shootings. When we master the fire within ourselves, we can collectively tame the fires in the world. Just as firefighters, who tackle wildfires, often create alternate spaces for those fires to burn in order to prevent them from destroying human habitats and other essential structures, you need to learn to create new spaces in which your inner fire can burn safely. Everything has a purpose, and fire of any kind is no different. Fire burns. The choice you have with your inner fire is not whether or not it burns, but instead what you'd like it to burn. According to John The Baptist, Jesus was going to use the Holy Spirit to burn "up the chaff with unquenchable fire." He would not have the fire burn up the wheat.

Besides burning, fire also gives light. It is that light that exposes the chaff in you for the fire to burn. If in fear you resist that fire burning, you take away its space to do its job. If instead you welcome the fire to burn the chaff of pictures lighting up, the fire will follow into the new space to burn and leave the wheat unharmed.

To help you learn to master more of that sacred flame within you, we offer you the 2021 June SHAPE Remote Retreat Intensive -

🔥 Igniting the Fire of the Holy Spirit 🔥

Be Yourself, Be Senior & Own Your Trancemediumship

When you keep your sight on God, the Holy Spirit ignites the kundalini within you. So we'll explore further what the kundalini energy is and how it works within you. You'll discover the deeper levels of pictures and energies that you've unconsciously held in various levels of the mind that the kundalini has been exposing and burning. We'll look at how that affects you and what you can do to make this process effortless and joyful.

Besides everything else, your trancemediumship space is where the Holy Spirit and the kundalini come together. So, that space becomes much more active at times like now. In this remote retreat intensive, you'll get to practice owning more of your trancemediumship in a variety of ways so that you can be more your psychic, creative self in this world. Let the big healing continue!

We'll officially get the ball-rolling—or the campfire lit—with our SHAPE Pre-Retreat TeleSeminar Special, Deprogramming What Keeps You From God. You'll get to take a few more steps up in your havingness of God and what that might include. Then, as always, we'll follow-up the remote retreat intensive with our SHAPE Post-Retreat TeleSeminar Special addressing a most important aspect of mastering your trancemediumship in this world, Your Trancemediumship and Your Relationships.

Ready to take your next steps in Being Yourself, Being Senior, and Owning Your Trancemediumship Space?
