Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

How is 2022 treating you so far? I'm sure that some of you may be feeling that it's already a bit of a rough ride, while others of you may be experiencing that so far, life is sunny and bright this year. Yet, all of you know that no matter how you might be experiencing life personally at any given time, life just goes on. In this divided world, when some things seem to go up, others go down. You have to remind yourselves when a personal eclipse seems to shroud your world in darkness that the sun is still shining as brightly as ever, it's just temporarily obscured.

But, when are we gonna get there? As every parent who's ever driven kids on a long trip knows, whenever things get tough, the tough want to know when they're gonna get there. Whether you get bored or uncomfortable or in pain, your ego will start to scream to hurry up and do something to change it up. Of course, your ego doesn't really care about you or your well-being—it only thinks of saving its own skin. Yet, it does that by convincing you that it's all about your survival. To your ego, it's all a matter of life or death. What it doesn't tell you is that death is not the opposite of life. When it presents its ultimatum that you have to choose either life or death, it's tempting you into its trap by making it seem that the only choice you have is to live or to die. Since life is eternal and therefore has no opposites, death cannot be its opposite.

Life offers you an unlimited multitude of creative choices and never in the form of either-or. Whereas life is all-inclusive, either-or is exclusive and restrictive. Either-or keeps you hostage in a lie, an illusion of truth. Life, in fact, is your path to freedom. Whenever you choose the all-inclusiveness of life, you free yourself from yet another of your ego's cunning strategy of exclusion and isolation designed to keep you hostage to its tyranny of survival.

2022 already has been offering plenty of opportunities to free ourselves from the fears that give rise to our desire for external control and power. Just because you might not have the slightest interest in gaining world domination doesn't mean that you don't have at least a few control "issues" lurking in your mind. For example, you might somewhat obsess about certain things in your life. That comes from trying to control. Or you might jump into trying to intellectually figure things out when you run into a problem. That too is your ego trying to gain control of what it fears. Have you ever tried to change someone for the better? That's another attempt at control and the list goes on and on.

Life constantly provides us with opportunities to free ourselves from the ego's desires, demands, expectations, and ultimatums. When things are going well in your life, however, you tend to not notice that your ego is still working tirelessly to keep you under its hypnotic control. Then, when things start going south for you in some way and you get desperate enough, you'll have to look for the truth beyond the appearance of things. Only then can you set yourself free from the illusory. Your realization that you have to seek the truth is called a wake-up call. Truth shall set you free.

For those of you seeking to make a more proactive use of the great opportunities life gives you to free yourselves more from the dictates of your ego, we welcome you to join us for this upcoming weekend of four transformative and fun teleclasses plus a Post-Class Bonus Zoom Q&A, Talk-Story & Social session. The overall theme throughout this special series of teleclasses and bonus Zoom session is: Your Path to Freedom: Your Psychic Development & Following Your Inner Spirit Guidance. Each of the four teleclasses will address and explore an aspect of your psychic development, your process of following your own inner spirit guidance, and your path to freeing yourself from your ego's illusory controls. They will each help you further yourself along your path of awakening and fulfillment of purpose.

Read on for descriptions on each of the four teleclass offerings. We highly recommend taking all of them for the greatest benefit because they all work together, but you can take any or as many of them as you choose. Also, if you cannot join us when we offer a particular teleclass live, you can still purchase it as an mp3 audio download and you'll receive the unedited teleconference version right after the weekend and the studio-recorded professionally edited and mastered version with intro and outro music within a week or two after the weekend for you to use. Of course, if you purchase all four teleclasses together you'll get a discount.

TSW22-2 TC2-Fear Not! Being Senior in Relationship to Other Beings

So many people in the world today are affected by fear ranging from minor worries and anxieties to outright terror. When people are driven by fear, they will freeze and become unable to proceed creatively in their lives or they will aggressively try to control everything and everyone around them. In this class, you'll learn to reclaim your seniority as the eternal spirit that you are in this world and free yourself more from being afraid of spirit and unseen and unknown beings around you. It is when you have your seniority in relationship to other beings that you can effectively communicate with and know them. Learn to be the master of your own space and claim your seniority in relationship to any other being that might knowingly or unwittingly infringe on your space.

2/27 Sunday 9 AM - 11 AM (PT) / 12 PM - 2 PM Eastern / 6 PM - 8 PM Central European

Follow Your Inner Spirit Guidance, Not Your Ego

Staying on track on your own path to your ultimate freedom makes up the biggest part of the challenge of spiritual growth. No matter what happens along the way, if you stay on course, you will make it to your destination. It's when you stray off-course that you can get hung up on a major detour. In this class, you'll learn what it means to follow your inner spirit guidance, what you have to be aware of and do to keep following it, and how to discern the difference between your ego's desires and demands and your own true inner guidance from spirit. You'll learn various psychic tools and spiritual practices to help you stay on track to your freedom. It's high-time to realize that your ego is not the boss of you.

TSW22-2 TC5Z-Bonus Zoom Post-TeleClass Q&A, Talk-Story & Tea

We'll invite everyone who takes part in at least one teleclass during this weekend event to join us for this bonus Zoom Q&A, Talk-Story and Social after the last class on Sunday. It's an important time right after learning on this profound inner level to get together with others who also went through the classes and integrate what you learned and the energy you gained back in a more social space. Not only can you ask questions that you might have from the classes, but also you'll get to see some of your classmates and hear a little about their experiences and share some of yours with the group. Remember, video games and other illusions can be entertaining as well as educational. This is a great time to have fun, chill, integrate, and continue to learn.
