

Liebe Freunde und erwachende Seelen,

A serene cerulean sky, illuminated by a golden sun, heralds an early Spring for Mount Shasta. What snow remains on our rooftop metamorphoses into a trickling stream back into the earth below. As Mother Nature stretches and yawns to welcome her annual awakening, I am reminded that it is time, once again, for Raphaele and I to see our dear friends and students in Switzerland. Our upcoming May visit to teach in Basel and Zürich will be my tenth trip to Switzerland and Raphaele's seventh. Zürich has called to me like my second home ever since I first stepped upon the cobblestone streets of Altstadt and walked along its See. All throughout the year, we look forward to returning there. And we thank each of you for lovingly welcoming us.

We feel even closer to you now, since many of you are already tuning in to our new weekly Worldwide Internet Radio Show, Living The Miracle with Michael and Raphaele Tamura. VoiceAmerica.com Talk Radio Network broadcasts our show "live" every Wednesday at 11 AM Pacific Time (US) / 8 PM Swiss Time on its Empowerment Channel. If

For those of you who love wonderfully transformative movies, PGS-Intuition Is Your Personal Guidance System, has been screening in theaters across Australia and the US to rave reviews. I'm urging its producers to bring it to the big screens in Europe soon. It's a dramatic documentary by a multi-award-winning Australian filmmaker, Bill Bennett, that follows his extraordinary journey of awakening that began when a voice saved him from certain death and continued through his worldwide search for answers as to what that voice was, why it chose to save his life, and what the purpose for his experience was. His years of searching led him to experts in the subject of intuition across the globe in the fields of science, religion, and spirituality. Among some 80 interviews the director conducted himself, he culled 26 of them to weave into his insightful film. I'm honored to be one of those interviewed featured in this film. So, if you do have the opportunity to see this film, when it comes to Europe, you'll personally know at least one of the people in it! In the meantime, here's the link to the movie trailer for you to enjoy: <https://www.pgsthemovie.com>

Yes, it's been quite busy for us since I taught my evening workshop in Basel and evening workshop and weekend seminar in Zürich last year. I do, however, have a wonderful curriculum designed for you for my workshops and weekend seminar in Switzerland for this May. For awakening souls around the world, this year is a high-time for you to step-up in your self-empowerment and creative self-expression. Many of you may have already noticed that you seem to have much more to do on your plate than ever before - in fact, for some of you, it may even seem like you have too much you have to do! If what you have to do is a lot of fun and exciting for you, it may not seem to be too much, but, if it's just tedious work, you might not like it as much. Regardless of the nature of all that you have to do now, it has to do with the step-up of your creativity and power. So, don't be too quick to judge that it's problematic, if it's not too much fun. On the other hand, if you're loving whatever new that is happening now in your life, but it may seem that it's going too fast or there's too much of it all at once, know that your next lesson is to discover just how to manage all of the extra creative power that has become available to you. You need to learn to make more space for the spirit that you are, more than ever before.

With all of that in mind, I've made my curriculum for teaching in Switzerland for this

May. We'll be addressing and exploring the deeper aspects of your soul purpose - the real reason for your life here on earth. I will also teach you the psychic tools and spiritual practices that will help you more effectively - and joyfully - fulfill that purpose. As always, the workshops and weekend seminar that I will be giving in Basel and Zürich this year can be taken as individual lessons complete in themselves, but for those of you who are interested in accelerating your spiritual development and fulfillment of your true purpose, they will work together wonderfully to offer you a more in-depth learning experience.

I will start my Swiss teaching tour in Basel with Tools for Living Your Soul Purpose: Your Clairvoyance, Intuition & Mediumship as a 4-hour evening workshop. I consider the psychic abilities of clairvoyance, intuition, and mediumship to be the A-B-C's necessary in learning to fulfill our true purpose in life. Yet, these abilities natural to every incarnated soul here on earth, have been limited, neglected, or even deliberately obscured in so many people. It's definitely time to change that. A huge part of empowering yourself and being able to express yourself on a higher level of creativity requires that you learn to manage these three powerful abilities within you.

- Clairvoyance is your ability to see clearly and discern truth from illusion;
- Intuition is your direct line to your innermost knowing and what is true to you as a soul;
- Mediumship allows you to personally experience who you are as spirit and to learn to live the miracle of your immortal soul life. Understand these abilities and learn to use them correctly and you will be able to speak the language of Spirit and fulfill your soul purpose.

Next in line on our May Swiss teaching tour is my two-hour Friday Evening Workshop in Zürich, You Are Joyous & Psychic: Laugh, Love & Live By Intuition hosted by our dear friends, Wolfgang and Marianne Jaeger of Forum Im Licht and Buchhandlung Im Licht. Many people don't necessarily associate being psychic with being joyous. Yet, for me, joyousness and being psychic can't be separate. I wouldn't want to imagine life without continuing to develop my innate soul abilities. After all, as you get to know your psychic/soul self more and more, you become aware of the limitlessness of spirit that you are. If the freedom of limitlessness and wholeness won't give you joy, what experience will?

As humanity, we are faced with the decision of whether we will continue to be a body-based intellectual race or we will willingly step-up to becoming a fully spirit-centered intuitive one as we are destined to be. If you choose to take your next major evolutionary step, you will need to own the joyous life that is always within you, access much more of your psychic nature and potential, and express your inner spirit creativity everyday. So, in this evening workshop that will also be a wonderful preparation for the weekend seminar, we'll explore what it means to laugh more, love more, and live by following your inner intuitive guidance rather than by the expectations of others.

Then, I'll complete my Swiss teaching tour in Zürich with the most comprehensive and in-depth weekend seminar, Live Your Soul Purpose with Joy: Awaken Your Creativity, Imagination, Clairvoyance & Intuition. In this weekend seminar, we'll cover the relationship between your creativity and your imagination as well as between your natural clairvoyant ability and intuition. Being able to utilize all of these spiritual abilities is essential to you being able to live your soul purpose fully and joyously. There isn't a soul who doesn't possess all of these abilities. And everyone has them completely. Yet, what makes it seem that some people are tremendously gifted with creative and psychic abilities, while others are not is simply due to how much of his or her innate abilities each person is aware of, accessing, and using correctly in living his or her life. You'll be amazed at the treasures within you waiting for you to discover them! In this weekend seminar, you'll learn to access much more of your innate abilities, so that you can live more of your soul purpose with joy. Of course, in each of the events, I will be teaching simple, but powerful, psychic tools and spiritual practices that you can apply in your life everyday, as you travel upon your path of awakening.

Both Raphaelle and I are so looking forward to seeing everyone in Basel and in Zürich: Those of you who have participated in any of my workshops and weekend seminars over the past ten years in Switzerland as well as those of you who will join us for the first time. Also, know that when you decide to join us in any or all of these events, you will begin to experience changes in your energy and consciousness long before you arrive at the actual workshop or seminar. Pay particular attention as you wake up in the mornings and reflect upon what you might have been learning, while your body was sleeping and you may have been studying in my "night class"! (If you want to make sure to attend my "night class", just decide that you will go to my class as you fall asleep at night.)

May the light of truth shine evermore brightly upon your every step and divine love guide your every choice.

With gratitude, love and joyous laughter,

Michael
